From the Vicar's Desk

Beloved in Christ,

Once the British army made a military expedition to an island in the Pacific Ocean. Due to bad weather conditions the vessel couldn't reach the shore on the expected time.

Their stock of food and water were already depleted. When they finally reached the shore the exhausted soldiers spotted an orange vendor. They grabbed the heap of orange kept in front of him for sale and ate it at one go. When the vendor asked for money the soldiers threatened him and paid him nothing. The annoyed seller of oranges made a tall platform with the empty packing boxes, climbed over it and cried aloud "Be a British". The soldiers got extremely ashamed and instantly paid him the price of the oranges they consumed.

This incident is very much relevant to us today. People around us would caution us to "Be a Christian", finding that we live a life in contradiction with that of Christ Jesus. Our words and deeds do not go together. According Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, former President of India, Christians are ordinary people with extra ordinary claims. What is our testimony before people of other faiths? Do they believe us? Do we keep our words? Don't preach what you don't practise.

Karimbil Cheriachen has been a model, people of his time looked at with respect for his integrity and honesty in business. No buyer of his merchandise would ever recheck the quality or quantity over what was once certified by Cheriachen. That was the depth of faith people had in his integrity. Let us live the Word of God than preach it.

Christmas carol rounds, Christmas carol service, Christmas worship service, First communion to 16 children and Watch Night services were conducted in a meaningful way. Rt. Rev. Dr. Mathews Mar Makarios, our Diocesan Episcopa, Rev. Johnson Mathew, Administrator St. Thomas Hospital, Kattanam and Rev. K. Shibu, Vicar, Kuwait St. James Mar Thoma Church lead the various services. I appreciate the parishioners and the convenors and choir leaders in particular, in making our Christmas programmes and various services a wonderful experience.

We have just entered in to the New Year 2020, the third decade of the 21st century. Conscious efforts should be made to make the year a meaningful one to each one of us. We have to refurbish our life with good decisions. Family prayers should be done morning and evening every day without fail. Personal devotion is also very essential in our life. Keep apart some money every month for evangelistic and charity work. We need to support the less privileged in and outside the parish. Martin Luther King puts it very lucidly like whatever we possess for ourselves we will lose and whatever we dispossess for others' sake we will gain.

May God bless you all to live according His will in the year 2020. Wishing you a Happy New Year

Yours lovingly

Jiii Achen

DOOR TO DOOR CHRISTMAS CAROL ROUND

This year's House to House carol rounds were jointly conducted by two prayer groups each from 1st to16th December 2019. The Carollers heralded the birth of Jesus Christ to every house visited and gifted the "Yuvajana Sakhyam Calendar 2020" as Christmas Gift.

The parish wholeheartedly express gratitude to Convener Mr. Jacob Philip (Sabu), Joint Conveners Alex. M. George, Mr. Mathew M.M & Mr. James Nathaniel, Prayer Group Office-bearers and Kaisthana Samathi Members for the co-ordination and support towards the success of the Carol rounds.

FIRST COMMUNICANTS

16 Children's in the Parish received their first communion on 27th December 2019, from Rt. Rev. Dr. Mathews Mar Makarios Episcopa and joined as full members of the Mar Thoma church. We whole-heartedly and prayerfully welcome them to St.Thomas Mar Thoma Church .

CHRISTMAS CAROL SERVICE

The Christmas Carol service for the year 2019 was held on 20th of December, Friday evening at ICSK-Salmiya, with a spectacular theme 'മഹാത്രുത്രം' - ഇതാ മനുഷ്യരോടുകൂടെ ദൈവത്തിന്റെ കൂടാരം; (WONDROUS – Tabernacle of God is with His people).

Our vicar, Rev. Jiji Mathew, in his presidential address highlighted the importance of celebrating a meaningful Christmas.

Rev. Johnson Mathew (Director, Kattanam Mar Thoma Mission hospital) delivered the Christmas message. He emphasized and encouraged Christian communities including Churches to jointly face the challenges in order to reiterate our Christian faith in our present age context. He said that it's our primary responsibility to uphold the social values and to co-exist with other communities.

The Choir office bearers along with the Parish office bearers, and Kaisthana samithy arranged to present the program in a beautiful and colourful Christmas mood alongside a festive spirit.

While the Senior choir presented a mix of melodious Malayalam and English carols, the Junior choir had presented two songs. It was indeed a 'feast' to watch the little ones presenting a Malayalam classical song of Mahakavi K.V. Simon and a western English prayer song.

The senior choir was conducted by choir leader Mathew C. Oommen & assistant choir leader Andrews Cherian; while the Junior choir was conducted by its leader Jerina Susan Mathew.

The choir conductors were instrumental in triggering the zest and enthusiasm for the carols service.

A unique attraction was the Nigerian carol presented to the tunes of African music. Choristers and drummers gave a pragmatic flair to the evening by eloquently presenting the Nigerian carol 'Bethelehemu'. Choristers were instrumental in reflecting the spirit of African tunes. Indeed, it was a true manifestation of talents

The program commenced with a procession of the choiristers on to the stage. The packed ICSK auditorium sung festive carols and listened to Bible readings prophesying the birth of baby Jesus and the coming of the Saviour. Delicious Christmas cakes baked by the Savikasanghom was served after singing the 'Silent Night' in candlelight.

Earlier, the welcome address was given by Parish vice president C.M Philip. The program closed out with a vote of thanks by Parish Secretary Mon Mathews C which was followed by prayer and benediction by Rev. Yeshudasan.

Indeed... WONDROUS – Tabernacle of God is with His people).
