CONDOLANCES

With deep regret and profound grief, Kuwait St. Thomas Mar Thoma church expresses heartfelt condolences on the sad demise of our Suffragan Metropolitan Rt. Rev. Geevarghese Mar Athanasius Thirumeni. May fond memories of Athanasius Thirumeni bring us comfort during this hard time. Our hearts and prayers go out to the grieving Mar Thoma Sabha and Churches.

From the Vicar

Tribute to Rt. Rev. Geevarghese Mar Athanasius Suffragan Metropolitan

Athanasius Thirumeni was born on 26th April 1944 in the family of (Late) Sri. C.I. Idicula and (Late) Smt. Achiyamma, of Nedumpra Christos Mar Thoma Parish. He was ordained as Semmash on 3rd May 1969 and as Kasseesa on 14th June 1969. He was consecrated as Ramban on 4th November 1989 and as Bishop on 9th December 1989. Thirumeni gave admirable leadership to various dioceses and institutions of the Mar Thoma Sabha.

Thirumeni's discourses are the outcome of his mature thoughts, depth of knowledge and consistent reading habit. He was a good friend of Theological books, literary books and periodicals. All his speeches were thought provoking and appealing to all. As a refuge to everyone in distress and sorrow, he had a special ability to win the hearts of all. His speeches and messages always comprehended the depth of Biblical thoughts in a natural and poetical style to the audience. He was blessed with a rare ability to lead the audience to the shores of total submission lifting them on wings of fancy with the help of poetic description. Thirumeni was a prophet of justice and truth. His punctuality, sincerity, commitment to the community, personal love and affection to the Achens and lay people are appreciable. Thirumeni took keen interest in organizing youth camps in a systematic and meaningful way and encouraged many youths to the full-time ministry of Mar Thoma Sabha. Thirumeni's special care and consideration to the mission fields, missionaries and evangelists were appreciable.

As St. Thomas Mar Thoma Family in Kuwait, let us join the Mar Thoma Syrian Church in mourning the great loss of a great leader, visionary, ecumenist, scholar and shepherd. Thirumeni served faithfully and selflessly for the benefit of the church and society at large, both in India and abroad. His dedicated and matured leadership will be missed. We thank God for his life and ministry, and hope that excellence of his work will continue to inspire future leaderships of Mar Thoma Sabha, to serve with an undying passion and commitment.

With prayerful regards

Bobby Achen
