From the Vicar's Desk

Beloved in Christ,

Recently I received a WhatsApp message regarding a change in my children's school transportation arrangement. The buses shall stop 300 meters away from the school and the students shall walk to their classes. The parents who got agitated over the new arrangement approached the principal and expressed their disapproval to make their children walk 300 metres daily from the bus to the classroom. The Principal who stood his ground informed that those who cannot let the children walk a distance of 300 metres can shift them from the school

Today the parents do not want their children to undergo any suffering or pain. They treat them like dolls. We don't make them do any work .They are not involved in the day-to-day affairs of their homes. Their routine is to study, eat, chat, play and spend time on the mobile and computers. No pain, maximum comfort.

Children who are in the NCC/NSS run 2-3 KMs daily. Those who are pampered as above are unable to run even a short distance.

How many of our children who passed SSLC can fill an application form for their higher studies or for opening an account with a Bank. Are the children reading newspapers daily? How many of us know the name of the Chief Minister of Kerala?

Parents should teach their children at least to clean up their rooms, wash rooms and toilets. They should iron their uniform by themselves. Make them to fix a bulb at home. We should give greater importance to character formation than earning degrees.

Many times I emphasised the importance of the children's participation in our worship service. Parents and Sunday school teachers should take initiative to motivate our children to attend the Friday or Tuesday Holy communion service. If not, we are going to face a very dangerous situation of our younger generation slipping away from the churches or homes with least loyalty to them. I urge upon each one of you to take this as an emergency and do something about it.

We just had our Parish convention on the theme "Parish: A healing community". Rev. Abraham Thomas Achen, Vicar, Port Blair Mar Thoma Church delivered four speeches on the above theme. We are the healed one to heal others. On 25th October Friday we conducted our family dedication day. 27th Sunday and 29th Tuesday were also observed as family dedication days.

In November, as per church calendar, the advent season will start. The Church and its people are getting ready for receiving the Christ the saviour. God gave his only son through an ordinary woman named Mary. God used many people for his salvific purpose. We are meditating it in these days.

May God helps us all to commemorate these days and people to remind ourselves of our role in the salvific plan of God.

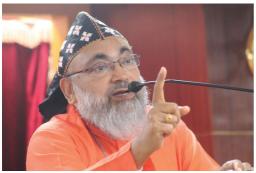

Yours lovingly

Jiji Achen

PARISH CONVENTION

Parish annual convention was held from October 21st Monday to 24th Thursday at St. Thomas Center and Parish Hall.

Rev. Abraham Thomas from Port Blair was the main speaker for this year's convention. Second day Kottarakkara-Punalur Bishop Rt. Rev. Dr. Yuyakim Mar Coorilos Episcopa also attended the meeting.

It was a blessed occasion for St. Thomas members with his thought-provoking messages based on parish theme "PARISH A HEALING COMMUNITY".

Let us all unitedly thank Almighty God for making the annual convention a grand success. It became a success because of active participation of our beloved members of our parish.

Abraham Malpan Palakunnathu - A Leader of the Reformation

Abraham Malpan Born in 1796 in Palakunnathu family at Maramon. He became a Deacon in 1811 and a Priest in 1815. He was a Malpan (Teacher) in Kottayam Theological seminary. He gave able leadership for the reformation in the Syrian Church. He is known as the Luther of the Malankara Church. Our Bishops Thomas Mar Athanasius (1837 –1893) and Titus I Mar Thoma (1843-1910) were his sons.

"The Malpan was a strong Churchman, loyal to the best traditions of his Church. He wanted only to affect such reforms in the Church as were consistent with the Apostolic and truly evangelical traditions of the Church. This he tried to do by Translating and revising the liturgy and by doing away with the unscriptural Practices which had crept into the Church and by restoring the Church to what he considered to be its prime position before the Synod of Diamper. He therefore strove hard for the abolition of auricular confession (confessing the sin to a priest), prayers for the dead, invocation of saints, and unhealthy veneration (giving deep reverence or respect) of sacraments. He reintroduced the practice of giving Holy Communion to the people in both kinds. Further he emphasized the reading and study of the Bible, family-worship and evangelistic work. He also insisted on a high moral standard of conduct for laity and clergy alike. All this created ferment in the Church and its effects are still discernible in the Syrian Church as a whole". (MarThoma Sabha Directory)Before his birth, his father died and we don't know much about his father. He lost his mother while he was only two years old. Malpan had only one brother, named Mathunny. Both the boys were brought up by their father's elder brother Palakunnathu Thomas Malpan.

Trumpet Call & Reforms

On 6 September 1836, strategies were formed by a group of 12 senior clergy under the leadership of Abraham Malpan, to initiate reformation. They issued a circular describing what they considered the wrong teachings, and a statement listing twenty-four evil practices which the Church had picked up due to its association with other churches and religions. They sent the same as a petition to governmental authorities; which all started from an order to investigate the reforms that could be made by the metropolitan.

At the time of Purification, a number of reforms were made in church. A few of them are given below.

- Translated and revised the liturgy thus removing the unscriptural practices.
- Abolished prayers for the dead, invocation of saints, and veneration of sacraments.
- 3. Abolished auricular confession.
- Introduced the practice of giving Holy Communion to the people in both kinds.
- Emphasized the reading and study of the Bible, family-worship and evangelistic work.
- 6. Removed pictures and drawings and statues from the churches and places of worship.
- Insisted on a good moral standard of conduct for the laity and simple living for the clergy with high morale.

On Monday 29 August 1836, the closing day of the 15 Day lent, Abraham Malpan celebrated the Holy Qurbana Service in Malayalam directly translating from the Syriac Text at his home parish in Maramon. Clergy who supported him also followed it in various other parishes.

Every year in the first week of October, there was a church festival at Maramon, connected with saintly Maphriyono-Catholicos Mor Baselious Yeldho.. A wooden image of the saint named as 'Muthappen' (meaning: Elder Father), was taken around in procession and people used to offer prayers and offerings to it. In 1837, Abraham Malpan took the image and threw it into a well saying, "Why consult the dead on behalf of the living?" (Isaiah 8:19). So when the festival came there was no image to be taken out for procession.

After Effects

Abraham Malpan and Cheppad Philipose Mar Dionysius, were spiritual companions. But when Abraham Malpan used the revised liturgy and brought about changes in practices that disappointed and offended Marthoma XII who threatened him with excommunication. But Abraham Malpan informed him that if excommunicated, he would not ask to revoke it. Marthoma XII did not terminate or laicize malpan as being a prelate, allowed him to keep the vicar position and suspended malpan from religious duties; also refused priesthood to the deacons trained under him as a casuistic measure. Abraham Malpan was not disheartened. He continued with the reforms. He returned to Maramon. Many of his students joined him to continue their studies. All those who believed that the church needed to be revitalised also joined him. Members of parishes in Kozhencherry, Ayroor, Kumbanad, Koorthamala, Eraviperoor, Thumpamon, Elanthoor, Kundara, Kottarakara, Mavelikara, Mallapally, and many other places made trips to Maramon to attend the service in Malayalamand listen to his sermons. Doors were also opened for reformation in other places by clergymen who supported him.

At this stage he had three choices in front of him. Repent and go back to the old beliefs; join the Anglican Church with western theology and aid; or go forward with the reformation. He decided to choose the third one.

Mathews Mar Athanasius Metropolitan

Mathews was the son of the elder brother of Abraham Malpan and a personally groomed deacon. After completing his studies at Kottayam, he joined at Madras Christian College in Chennai, established by Rev. John Anderson. After completing his collegiate studies and by the spiritual guidance and necessity of Abraham Malpan, Mathews made travel arrangements to go to Antioch for Bishopship, with the help of his teachers in Chennai. It is said that Deacon Mathews had confided his vision and ambition with his friend George Mathen (later Rev.) - "If I live, it would be only for my Mother Church; I will throw away the weeds and restore the Church to its original purity."[17] He was ordained as a Metropolitan (bishop) in February 1842 at Antioch, and held the duties as bishop in the region for a few months and returned home in March 1843. In 1852 he became the Metropolitan of Malankara Syrian Church and headed the entire Orthodox church until 1877. H.H. Palakkunnathu Mathews Mar Athanius had ordained many Deacons and Priests, among a Deacon, who became a Saint later on in the Malankara Syrian Church (St. Greegorios of Parumala). In 1868, while HH was the Metropolitan of Malankara Syrian Church, he had also ordained his cousin - Palakkunnathu Thomas Mar Athanasius (later took over the matters with the Royal court relative to the disputes with Malankara Syrian Church on behalf of HH Mathews Mar Athanasius).

Last days

Abraham Malpan was diabetic. There was at that time no proper treatment for diabetes. At the age of 50 he became very sick, and died on 9 September 1845. He was buried on the next day in the Maramon Church. The funeral service was conducted by his nephew Mathews Mar Athanasius Metropolitan, of the Malankara Syrian Church.

Conclusion

Abraham Malpan can be seen as a conservative radical reformer or a harried schismatic in the annals of Indian Christianity. Due to Abraham Malpan's untimely death and his lack of writings, it is hard to know what Malpan desired. But what we do know is that he was a zealous, passionate and a stern man. He lived for the edification of the Syrian Church and loved it by disliking and questioning it and trying to redress it, through reformation. To what degree did he want to reform it, we will never know due to the lack of resources and conflicting sources, we are left mainly with what history the historians, with their own biases, would want to say about it and him. Yet, the Malpan's beliefs of what should be reformed need not be normative for the church. But it is his unquenchable desire to reform timely and be biblically sound to what can be agreed upon is to be counted, and the event as an inspiration in dormancy and as a guide for readiness to change, in the present day.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

Preparations for the Harvest Festival 2020 celebrations, scheduled on the 7th Feb 2020 at the ICSK, Salmiya campus, was kickstarted on Friday 25th October 2019 after the Holy Communion service. The formal inauguration of the HF20 coupons was conducted by Rev. Abraham Thomas (Convention Speaker) in presence of our Vicar Rev. Jiji Mathew. A poster size replica of the HF20 coupon was handed over for inauguration by the Coupons Team convener Mr. Biju George Thomas. Harvest Festival Joint Convener Thomas Abraham, Eapen Thomas, Renji Varghese & Office Bearers attended the function.

The HF20 General Convener Mr. Christy Thomas briefed the congregation on the following main objectives of this year's Harvest Festival.

- 1) Buy and distribute critical cancer care medicine for poor cancer patients.
- 2) Provide free kidney dialysis sessions for poor patients at Kattanam & Kumbanad hospitals.
- 3) Support construction of a house for a sick evangelist of Mar Thoma Sabha.

The coupons are planned as 'HF' coupons and not as a 'raffle' coupons for the lucky draw alone, although there are attractive prizes offered through raffle. Cash receipts will be issued for all coupon purchases, which unlike in the previous years, will allow to reflect the amount contributed against each family in the annual parish report. Further, each 50 KD coupon purchase shall provide one entry each to a special draw planned to encourage the coupon purchases. (100 KD shall offer 2 chances in this special draw and so forth). The initial thirty families, who had bought 100 KD HF coupons were honored by giving a personalized appreciation letter by Rev. Jiji Mathew.
